Website

Furman provides ways for departments, organizations, and individuals to create web pages.

The University and university departments use Sharepoint 2010 for our web content management system. Student organizations are encouraged to use the web creation tools in OrgSync for their organizations. Faculty and staff can use the eWeb service to create personal web sites.