Leaving Furman - students

Graduating students

- Your accounts (NetID, email, Moodle, etc.) will be deleted 90 days after your graduation date.
- Notify family and friends of the email address you plan to use after graduation. Make sure you do not put your Furman email address on your resume or any other job/graduate school applications so you can be reached for these opportunities.
- If you have worked in a department at Furman, conducted research, etc. using Furman's Box or OneDrive cloud storage you will need to transfer ownership to your supervisor or supervising faculty. Documents you have created and shared with others are owned by you. These files will be deleted when your account is closed unless you transfer ownership to another person at Furman.

Withdrawing from university

- Your accounts (NetID, email, Moodle, etc.) will be deleted 10 days after you withdraw.
- Notify family and friends of the email address you plan to use after you leave Furman.
- If you have worked in a department at Furman, conducted research, etc. using Furman's Box or OneDrive cloud storage you will need to transfer ownership to your supervisor or supervising faculty. Documents you have created and shared with others are owned by you. These files will be deleted when your account is closed unless you transfer ownership to another person at Furman.