

IT Self Help

Welcome to IT Services self-help pages. These pages provide detailed "how to" instructions and answers to frequently asked questions. This information is organized by type of service.

You will find descriptions of each IT service in the IT Service Catalog.

The ITS web site provides an overview of Furman information technology services and policies.

If you are unable to find the information you are looking for here, please contact the IT Service Center at x3277 or service.center@furman.edu
