

Teaching Stations

Furman has hundreds of public use computers on campus to meet various needs. There are computer classrooms, computer labs and departmental labs.

Detailed information and video are available on using the teaching station and the software on each.

How to use Crestron teaching station

Software on Teaching Stations

Most spaces on campus can be reserved using the 25 Live campus events calendar which is accessible from my.furman.edu or by contacting the Academic Records office. If you need to reserve a computer lab for a class contact the Academic Records.